Firm of Orenstein Bros. of Houghton and Calumet to Dissolve Partnership

SALE OPENS FRIDAY, NOV. 15th

The firm of Orenstein Bros., established in 1893, which has been doing business in the Copper Country since 1900, operating two stores, one in Douglass House Block, Houghton, and one at Fifth and Portland Street, Calumet, are about to dissolve partnership. The two stores will be conducted in the future as separate institutions. Mr. Wm. Orenstein will be in charge of the Houghton store, and Mr. James Orenstein continues as head of the Calumet store.

This firm, long and favorably known for their integrity as capable and high class merchants, are now about to inaugurate the first Sale of their business career, and on Friday Morning, November 15th, they will open their doors to a gigantic Dissolution Sale that involves the sacrifice of over $50,000 worth of High Grade merchandise. In order to dissolve this partnership of years, it is necessary to quickly convert the stock into cash, and prices must be reduced to a mere fraction to produce this result.

IS THE OPENING DAY OF THIS DISSOLUTION SALE

and we expect a tremendous crowd at both our Houghton and Calumet stores. Why shouldn't they flock here, when you consider that this firm has always borne the reputation for honest values and honest advertising, and you can attend this Sale with the full assurance that we are not going to depart from a life time custom, or ruin the chances of your future patronage by exaggerating values or deceiving you.

We repeat the Statement, we are dissolving partnership, and are sacrificing thousands and thousands of dollars worth of brand new high grade merchandise at prices lower than you will ever see again. We want you to come prepared to save money, and expect the highest quality of merchandise. We are not quoting the list of articles and prices here for the reason that we have not the room but we particularly urge you to come and see for yourself the bargains that await you.
